

“Political Science, Conflict Resolution, and War”

The seventh in a series of conferences sponsored by the Triangle Institute for Security Studies
as part of its Study of War Project

September 15-16, 1995
Grumman Auditorium
The Friday Center, Chapel Hill, NC

Friday, September 15: Political Science

- | | |
|--------------------|--|
| 8:00 - 8:50 a.m. | Registration |
| 8:50 - 9:00 a.m. | Welcoming Remarks in the Grumman Auditorium |
| 9:00 - 10:30 a.m. | Glenn Snyder (University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill)
“The Evolution of International Security Studies” |
| 10:30 - 10:45 a.m. | Break |
| 10:45 - 12:15 p.m. | Kenneth Waltz (University of California, Berkeley)
“The Future of War” |
| 12:30 - 1:30 p.m. | Luncheon in the Friday Center Dining Room |
| 1:45 - 3:15 p.m. | Bruce Bueno de Mesquita (Hoover Institution)
“The War Choice: Why is War Ever Chosen over Peace?” |
| 3:15 - 3:30 p.m. | Break |
| 3:30 - 5:00 p.m. | Jack Levy (Rutgers University)
“Framing, Loss Aversion, Crisis Bargaining, and War” |

End of first day’s proceedings.

Saturday, September 16: Conflict Resolution

- 8:50 - 9:00 a.m. Welcoming Remarks in the Grumman Auditorium
- 9:00 - 10:30 a.m. Thomas Schelling (University of Maryland)
“The War That Did Not Happen”
- 10:30 - 10:45 a.m. Break
- 10:45 - 12:15 p.m. Bruce Russett (Yale University)
“The Kantian Project”
- 12:30 - 1:30 p.m. Luncheon in the Friday Center Dining Room
- 1:45 - 3:15 p.m. Ole Holsti (Duke University)
“Public Opinion, Foreign Policy, and War”
- 3:15 - 3:30 p.m. Break
- 3:30 - 5:00 p.m. Anatol Rapoport (University of Toronto)
“The Institutional Approach to the Study of War”
- End of conference.